CITE DEMAND AND TACTICS

Point to $28 000 Ransom Asked Manner in Which Victim Was Seized and Abused

By The Associated Press

TACOMA Wash Jan 16—Records of Tacoma degenerates were studied in detail today as search for the killer of 10 year-old Charles Mattson swung back toward the kidnaping scene

Federal agents a reliable source said received records of Tacoma criminal trials including several sexual perversion cases

The disclosure strengthened a frequently expressed theory the Mattson kidnaping and slaying was the work of a demented person who possibly knew the Mattson family personally rather than a well planned abduction by an organized gang or a big time criminal Supporting points included

The odd ransom demand—$.8 000 instead of a rounded figure such as $200 000 in the kidnaping of another Tacoma boy little George Weyerhaeuser

Tactics Also Cited

The manner of the kidnaping—seizure of little Charles Dec... at his home while his brother and sister looked on

The brutality of the slaying—Charles was stabbed in the back beaten on the head and his unclothed body left to freeze in snow covered brushland near Everett where it was found Monday

Reports of the father Dr W W Mattson that the kidnaper in telephone conversations was incoherent

Col Wilson Burt commandant at Fort Williams Me said today he was holding a 30 year old self styled army deserter who he said had characteristics similar to some attributed to the kidnap slayer

Characterized as a definite suspect by Chief of Police Fritz Kaminsky Arthur Madsen 26 a former insane asylum inmate was held at Sacramento Calif

Suspect Won't Talk

At Bellingham Wash Leigh Haskell Fowler an admitted robber in jail since Jan 9 refused to answer questions about his activities prior to that date Several others were held for investigation

It was understood Dr Mattson would leave Tacoma with his wife and two remaining children after a press conference today

The hunted ex convict Fred Orrin Haynes 46 walked into the police station yesterday morning sat for 15 minutes without being recognized and then announced

Denies Hes Guilty

They've got me all wrapped around this kidnaping I didn't have anything to do with it

Although Haynes was booked and questioned for more than an hour Detective Capt Marshall Scrafford said he had no apparent connection with the case

Haynes a former inmate of Folsom Prison Cal had been sought since Wednesday A San Jose (Cal) woman reported renting a cottage near Seattle to a man answering his description and a woman companion Federal agents and state police searched the furnished cottage yesterday but reported no discoveries of importance

Lester Cox, police identification expert took samples of Madsens handwriting and said he hesitated over the spelling of Mable the name used in classified ads addressed to the kidnaper by the Mattson family

Cows, Horses Marooned 3 Days on Straw "Island"

16 Farm Animals Find Precarious Haven in Flood Waters Near LaRue

Thirteen cattle and three work horses were marooned on a straw stack on a farm west of LaRue today imprisoned there by swirling flood waters that drove them to their precarious island Thursday afternoon

Strong currents have defied the efforts of their owner Carol Converse to take food to them in a boat but it was expected that the Scioto river would drop enough today to permit taking food to them Mr Converse said this morning he would drive the animals from the stack tonight if the water continued to recede

When the Scioto river near which the huge LaRue straw stack is located reached its crest yesterday the animals were surrounded by water 12 feet deep and were 300 yards from land Converse estimated At that time water was within four feet of the top of the straw pile he said

Although concerned about his ability to feed the animals and give them proper care Converse said he did not feel they were in danger of being swept away at any time

Crowded in a small part the 16 animals apparently sensed their danger and made no effort to crowd each other for more space Converse said

The animals were obliged to seek the shelter of the straw pile made up of the straw from 23 acres of oats when the river went up rapidly Thursday afternoon and covered the entire field in which they had been placed They ordinarily slept at the straw pile and probably had gathered there before the water reached the base of the pile Converse said

The Converse farm is one and one half miles northwest of LaRue Converse rents the tract from its owner Miss Emma J Myers

Sheriff Miller Sends Radio Call for His Namesake

Sheriff Fred Miller sent a call over the state highway patrol radio system today asking all police to be on the lookout for a man named Fred Miller The man to whom the sheriff disclaims any relationship is wanted here as an old time confidence man the sheriff said

A while later the same man stopped at a filling station at North Main and Mark streets and tried a similar story but to no avail Sheriff Miller said if the man can be located charges will be filed

The radio call was first telephoned to the broadcasting station at Findlay and will be sent out over the state

CONTRAST MARKS SECOND NEW DEAL INAUGURATION

Longtime Bills Before Congress Which Four Years Ago Was Pressed for Immediate Action In Depths of National Panic

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON Jan 16—Approach of the second Roosevelt inauguration with debate centered on longtime rather than temporary legislation presented a sharp contrast today to the call for immediate action four years ago

For the first time in history the pre inaugural atmosphere at the capitol was one of order Instead of a lame duck congress rushing through its bills before adjournment an expectant quiet prevailed

Legislators speculated about how specifically the President would redefine his program next Wednesday—the new inauguration day

Three actions by the President to closing his first term intensified the expectancy the warning to the courts against "narrow" construction of the Constitution the reminder to business that budget balancing depends on reemployment and the recommendations for a sweeping reorganization of government

The fact that Mr Roosevelt chose to speak out vigorously before inauguration appeared to some to indicate he may amplify his view point on those questions next week

Four years ago with banks closing and depression rampant he said the emergency warranted war powers for the executive Congress readily granted all he asked in a staccato special session of 100 days

Getting much of the program by the supreme court was another matter The justices ruled unanimously that national recovery act transgressed states rights Invalidation of agricultural adjustment administration the Guffey coal act and several other major enactments followed

ARMY KEPT IN FLINT PENDING AGREEMENT IN AUTO LABOR WAR

Demobilization Order Rescinded as Part of Armed Force Is About To Board Train for Home.

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, Jan 16—Michigans national guard troops remained on duty in the automotive strike zone at Flint today as plans went forward for the opening of peace negotiations between General Motors and union representatives and the evacuation of sit down strikers in company plants

Orders for partial demobilization of troops were rescinded suddenly more than 600 of them were about to board a train for home when instructions to remain were received The 2 300 troops, Major Harold F Bindshaw said will remain during Sunday and Monday

The mayor, who conferred with Gov Frank Murphy before the new orders were issued insisted that neither he nor the governor anticipated a renewal of last Monday nights violence but that he considered retention of the soldiers over the week end during which the sit down strikers in the two Fisher body plants at Flint are to vacate

Agree on Procedure

Both the officers of General Motors and the United Automobile Workers agreed upon the procedure to be followed in the negotiations for peace

The plans calling for negotiation of eight points presented by the union were agreed upon today

Shortly afterward Prosecutor Joseph R Joseph announced his intention to prosecute to the limit charges of inciting to riot against seven leaders of the U A W A

Four of those named in the warrants surrendered for arraignment They are Victor and Roy Reuther brothers of Detroit Henry Kraus managing editor of the Flint Daily Auto Worker and Robert Travis of Detroit The other named in the warrants are William Carney of Akron O; R J Widick, publicity director of the U A W A and Walter Turner of St. Louis a union organizer

Meet With Knudsen

Arrangements for the permanent peace negotiations were made in a conference in the offices of William S Knudsen executive vice president of General Motors The union was represented by Homer Martin its president Wyndham Mortimer vice president and John Brophy a director of the Committee on Industrial Organization

Monday s initial sessions will open at 11 a m Subsequent sessions will be held from 10 30 a m to 4 30 p m and a formal statement will be issued by each side at the close of each day

After the meeting today Martin said

It seems quite evident that there is a desire on the part of General Motors to reach a settlement

Sit down strikers in some General Motors plants vote this afternoon on evacuation one of the conditions agreed upon as a precedent to the proposed conversations

The voting was at the Cadillac and Fleetwood plants in Detroit and the Guide Lamp plant at Anderson Ind Men in the two Fisher Body plants at Flint will vote tomorrow

17 Plants Remain Idle

Seventeen General Motors plants closed by strikes called by the U A W A will not operate during the forthcoming negotiations This was one point in the agreement to negotiate In other plants closed by shortages caused by the strikes Knudsen said operations will be resumed as soon as possible

I dont think it will take very long Knudsen said in reference to resuming operations It probably will take 10 or 12 days

The union General Motors agreement provided that the strike closed units would not be operated during the negotiations which may extend over the 15day period beginning Monday

Martin said it had not been decided whether the strike-closed factories would be picketed during the negotiations

Fight Three Cornered

Washington labor observers expressed the opinion that next weeks negotiations might develop into a three-cornered conflict involving General Motors the U A W A and the American Federation of Labor The auto workers union was suspended by the A F of L for affiliating with the Committee for Industrial Organization

These observers based their view on the unions demand for recognition as the sole collective bargaining agency for General Motors employes the seventh of the eight points

Outcome of the negotiations will have a bearing on the employment of 135 000 General Motors workers who are idle

The lack of glass due to a strike of Federation of Flat Glass Workers was another factor contributing to the idleness of automotive workers Ralph Lind federal mediator announced at Toledo O, that progress was being made in settling that strike

At Cincinnati Archbishop John T McNicholas issued a plea o labor

U. S. STEEL TO BUILD PLANTS

$60,000000 Construction Program Outlined at Dinner in Pittsburgh

NEW MILL INSPECTED

$45 000 000 and $15,000,000 Units To Be Erected in Pennsylvania

PITTSBURGH Jan 16—Leaders of the steel industry viewed a new $10 000 000 mill and found it good so good they speeded preparations today for pouring $60 000 000 into construction and improvement on other plants

They tramped through the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporations new plate mill at Homestead and saw the latest type machinery that squeezes ingots and shears steel into completed plates

Then at a banquet they heard W A Irvin president of U S Steel parent company of Carnegie-Illinois outline the expansion program

New Plant to Go Up

Roughly the program adding to the billions already being spent by the steel industry in improvements and construction provides

1—$45 000 000 for construction of hot strip and cool reduction mills with an annual capacity of 600 000 tons for production of sheet and tinplate at Clairton Pa

2—$15 000 000 for building a 1 000 000 ton slabbing mill at Bind dock to supply slabs for the Clairton Mills and installation of new electric power producing equipment

The program is another of many steps toward what some steel observers said may be a general improvement and construction drive throughout the industry in 1937 Many large and small companies already have some projects under way such as an improvement program at the Jones and Laughlin mills in Aliquippa Pa and Pittsburgh estimated to cost between $1 000 000 and $2 000 000

Myron C Taylor board chairman of U S Steel appealed for closer cooperation between labor and capital in an effort to end economic discord

I deplore the occasion of any controversy among men of similar intentions in their joint work of management and production and

URGES EXPRESSION OF HOLY SPIRIT

Calvary Church Evangelist Cites Need of Religious Fire

If you want to be prosperous in your Christian life let the fire enkindled by the Holy Spirit have expression Dr Paul Rees said in his sermon at last night's evangelistic service at the Calvary Evangelical church.

Speaking on Quench Not the Spirit based on 1st Thessalonians 5 19 he said in part: Fire is used many times in the Scriptures as a symbol of the Holy Spirit—It illuminates energizes purifies warms and fuses so does the Holy Spirit. Be careful how you treat Him when He comes in His ministrations. Don't put out the fire.

The orthodoxy of holiness may be retained long after its beauty is lost. Don't put out the hungry flame of the Holy Spirit. You can settle no great moral issues on the basis of a popular majority. If you expect to go with the crowd you might as well check your baggage for hell.

Last night's meeting climaxed a week of growing interest in the evangelistic services. Dr Rees will speak at three Sunday services which will close the series At 10 45 a m he will speak on the subject The Greatest Need of the Church his subject for the 2 30 service will be The Christians Hope and His Ministry and his topic for the 7 30 service will be The City's Tragedy and the Saviour's Tears.

GAS ON DESPITE TOLEDO STRIKE

Skeleton Crew Provides Service After 300 Workers Walk Out at Midnight.

By The Associated Press

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 16—An emergency crew of 25 men relieved 300 striking gas workers today to maintain gas service in this industrial city.

The gas employes union, failing to reach agreement in a dispute with the Ohio Fuel Gas Co. and Northwestern Ohio Natural Gas Co., struck at midnight, leaving skeleton crews until replacements could be obtained.

While union and company officials agreed to importation of an emergency staff to maintain service in this city of 250,000 persons, a dispute arose as the men took over the three plants and one booster plant.

Want Two Shifts

Company officials said they would demand two shifts of 25 men each, or 50 men in all. Union officials insisted the men should remain on the job continually with food and supplies brought them.

R. J. Boudrie, union president, said union demands included a signed contract and wage increases in the 11-point program submitted to the concerns.

Strikers seated in automobiles at the entrances explained to the emergency workers that they would not be permitted to leave the plants once they went in. The strikers consented to 25 emergency workers in order to maintain service.

John N. Edy, Toledo city manager, warned the workers and the company officials, as he did before the gas strike last August that he would see to it that there would be no shutdown of service.

There was no disorder and no picketing as the emergency force took charge. Gas service continued without interruption.

Company officials said they feared the small replacement crew might not be able to continue operations for any extended period. They said, however, they believed there was no immediate danger that the gas supply would be cut off.

Fear Cold Weather.

Company officials said cold weather would turn minor service disturbances into emergencies. Warnings also have been issued that a shutoff of service would mean a three-weeks delay before it could be resumed, as every main would have to be checked for air in the lines.

Hugh S. Kerwin, chief conciliator of the department of labor, was assigned by Secretary Perkins to attempt a settlement of the second such walkout here in five months.

GALION CITY AUDITOR PLEADS NOT GUILTY

man of Bucyrus, who had been called into the city auditor's office immediately, was present when Trapp was first questioned. The state department took charge Friday morning.

Method Explained

Officials say that in Trapp's alleged forgery operations, he first made out a bill in the name of the employe, a utility engineer called here several times in a year to do service work at the Galion municipal light and power plant.

Then, according to the charge, Trapp forged the name of H. C. Dye, superintendent of utilities for the bill's approval, a voucher was made out and the name of Service Director L. A. Cline was forged to this. Finally, officials making the investigation allege, the check was written, forging the payee's indorsement, then the check was countersigned and cashed.

Since Cline's resignation last July, 1936, Trapp did not take the trouble to forge the name of the new service director, Jay F. Nichols, or the name of Dye as approving the check, according to the charges. It is alleged that he merely forged the name of the payee on the check and cashed it. No bills and vouchers for these forgeries had been found since Nov. 2.

Discovery of the auditor's alleged illegal practices was made when Mayor W. M. King and other city officials checking over expenses in the light plant for the last year were attracted to the apparent excessive charges for the services of the utility engineer and soon discovered that payment had been made for many more days of service than had actually been put in. The state examiner was immediately summoned and after further examination it was decided to question Trapp.

The check-up thus far indicates that checks were issued as far back as the latter part of 1935, investigators say.

It is expected that the state department will send in new examiners, inasmuch as those sent here Friday were called back.

Trapp is a native of Galion, married, has three children, and lives on North Market street.

FLOOD WATERS REACH CREST ALONG RIVERS

lacked .02 inch of the all-January average of 2.72 inches, Weatherman Frank B. Barry said.

Members of the county surveyor's maintenance and bridge crews were kept busy by reports from every section of the county that culverts were washed out and roads were fissured by water that passed over them. No bridges were out however and, in most cases, traffic was maintained on county roads. There was no necessity of detouring any state highway traffic at any time, Resident Engineer Russell Harvey said.

County highway employes made periodic checks in the Scioto marsh territory Friday, while in Kenton, earlier in the day, a special crew was called into action and waited, with four boats in readiness, for possibility of a break or backwaters that would isolate a number of Kenton homes. The flood stage reached 19 feet here, two feet higher than at any time since the dredging of the river was completed 15 years ago.

Mr. Perry asks $30,000 for personal damages, $5,000 for the loss of services of his wife, injured in the accident, and $250 for the loss of his automobile.

He claims he stopped his automobile as he reached the tracks, listened and then started across. A southbound train struck the Perry auto, dragging it 150 feet and injuring Perry and his wife, according to the petition. Mrs. Perry was permanently injured, Perry said.

He accuses the railroad company of negligence in failing to provide safety gates or a watchman, in not having the train under control, in failing to sound a bell or whistle, in exceeding the city speed limit for trains.

Artist - Hermit Comes to Town from Tree Home

By The Associated Press

URBANA, O., Jan. 16—White-bearded G. Ora Steinberger, 55-year-old artist who quit a college professorship to become a tree-dwelling hermit, was back in civilization today, charged with vagrancy and lodged in a jail cell which he found hatefully narrow.

Officials, who said they filed the charge "for his own good," insisted that Steinberger enter the Champaign county infirmary, but acceded to his request that he be allowed to talk first to the superintendent, Pearl Bowen.

"I want to find out something about that infirmary first," said the man who spent more than a dozen years in the wilderness, with only a tree-top hut for shelter.

"I'd like to stay there for the winter if they'll not restrict me too much."

Sheriff Jay McKeever said the vagrancy charges were a formality and would be dropped if Steinberger would consent to receive the county's care.

"He's proud," said the sheriff. "He gets a small old-age pension. The township officials were afraid the old man couldn't stand the winter, so they brought him in to jail."

The hermit was an elderly man when he was stricken with tuberculosis a quarter-century ago, gave up his position as are instructor at Wittenberg college, Springfield, O., and took to the woods.

For years he lived in a tree, found his own food and drink in forest and field, and finally was pronounced cured of his ailment.

BRICKER TELLS WHY NEW DEALERS WON

Points to Recovery Trend and Expenditures of Federal Government.

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Jan. 16—Republicans, looking "sanely" at the re-election of President Roosevelt, ought to be encouraged, former Attorney General John W. Bricker of Ohio, told members of the Women's National Republican club at the 16th annual luncheon today.

With apparent recovery on the way, Bricker said in a prepared address "favorable voter were bound to result." Further, he added, the Democrats "cemented all the favorable forces by opening wide the government treasury and charging it up to the taxpayer."

"So," he concluded, "we should be gratified at the stalwarts, 16 million strong, who stood staunchly by their convictions and expressed their confidence in the Republican party."

The Republican party, "in power or protest, has a public duty to perform," he said.

"Our fight today is not alone a party fight. We today are not fighting for jobs or political control but for the preservation of the system under which we have so gloriously builded. The task is difficult and requires the most unselfish devotion to duty. We have no jobs. There is no hope of reward by appointment."

The party needs "a new leadership" Bricker said. And meanwhile it must depend "upon the active membership, a study and understanding of what is taking place, a campaign of education and relentless personal effort."

Puts First Aid Training Into Practice Early

A lesson in first aid was put to practical use by Mrs. S. B. Vermillion of Harding Highway East, in less than eight hours after she had returned home from attending the first class meeting of the Marion County Red Cross chapter's series of first aid lessons, she reported at the second class meeting Thursday night. Mrs. Vermillion is a beginner in the study course.

Following the instructions she has learned in the class enabled Mrs. Vermillion to direct workers in stopping the flow of blood from the injuries sustained by Eugene Foltz of 127½ West Center street, in an accident at "suicide crossing," at the intersection of state roules 95 and 24, four miles east of Marion, early in the morning of Jan. 8. Mr. Foltz suffered scalp injuries and a cut on his lip.

Classes are being held each Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Red Cross headquarters at the Y. M. C. A., on Monday of each week at the Waldo and the Green Camp schools and on Tuesday nights at Prospect.

The classes opened a week ago and credits will be given those completing the courses, the sponsors announce. Any one interested in the work may enroll at any one of the meetings next week, they say.

Corn will be planted on a record acreage in Argentina in the coming season and there will be a increase in the areas devoted to other grains.

their relations to the public," Taylor said in addressing the dinner gathering.

Charles G. Dawes Is Guest

"I have faith that if patience is invoked, if all prejudice and ill feeling are discarded, if honest intention to cooperate predominates, if self interest is subordinated to the common good, we can and must through common effort not only accomplish that equitable relationship between the owner, the worker and the public which will solve our existing economic discord, but help to render less acute that condition which is not new but which was illustrated so long ago in ancient Galilee, when our Lord, passing through a village, saw a group of men idling and he said to them, 'Why stand you here idle?' and they replied, 'Because no man has given us work.'"

Those who took part in an inspection tour of the new $11,000,000 mill and who later attended the dinner, included Edward R. Steinitz, chairman of the United States Steel finance committee; former Vice President Charles G. Dawes and other steel executives from New York, Chicago and Gary, Ind.

BARRIE - BARRYMORE ROMANCE ON ROCKS

She Sues for Divorce, Charging He Struck Her and Is Jealous of Her Aims.

By The Associated Press

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 16—The riotous romance of Elaine (Actor) Barrie, 21, and John (Caliban) Barrymore, began in a hospital, flared to public view as a cross country chase by plane and train—and today it was in the divorce court.

ASSEMBLY OBSERVES DAVEY SPEED ORDER

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 16—The speed at which bills—105 of them—were introduced in the Ohio general assembly during its first two weeks indicated today that the members consider seriously Gov. Martin L. Davey's desire for a three-month session.

The legislators hope that early introduction of pet measures will insure them more serious consideration so that they won't die in committee.

The $20,222,587 partial appropriations bill enacted, the administration speedily began developing its program. It turned over to the most overwhelmingly Democratic legislature since the Civil war these proposals:

To appropriate $3,000,000 for relief during the next three months, require the counties to match grants, dollar for dollar, and permit issuance of Carey bonds in 1937;

'Eye for an Eye' Deaths Sought by Rebel Force

By The Associated Press

Angry Basque Fascists, demanding sanguinary vengeance, swarmed through the streets of northern Spanish towns today in explosive war-time temper. Across Europe the stubborn problem of foreign volunteers in Spain kept diplomats worried and chancelleries alert.

Street mobs in Pamplona and elsewhere in the Basque country threatened to storm prisons and execute 2,000 Socialist prisoners on the spot "eye for eye" reprisal for the mass killings of more than 200 Fascist hostages by Spanish government sympathizers at Bilbao.

Competent British sources said 1,000 volunteers had reached Madrid through France and that 1,000 had gone to the insurgents from Italy in the last week, despite urgent British efforts to halt the stream of enlistments.

Heart Murmur.

NOTHING is more disturbing to the young mother than to be told her child has a heart murmur Unfortunately murmurs are frequently believed to indicate serious heart disease a fact of course and any suspicion of heart disease is always alarming

This symptom is found in many youngsters Indeed it is believed that at some time or other from eight to ten per cent of all children have murmurs Fortunately only a very small percentage of the murmurs are permanent or organic in their nature

An organic murmur is usually produced by some definite alteration in the structure of the heart For example as a result of a rheumatic infection there may be roughening of the heart valves with production of a murmur This effect may follow acute rheumatic fever pneumonia scarlet fever or some other infectious disease

In contrast to this comparatively rare type functional murmurs frequently occur in children Most have indicated these are rather harmless rarely if ever causing any serious disturbance In almost every instance the child outgrows the condition

Of course we must be on guard not to overlook what is really an organic murmur To determine the real importance of the symptoms it is necessary that the child report to the doctor for periodic examinations

He should not be cut off from activity or forbidden to engage in the usual games of childhood merely because someone has said the child has a slight murmur The parents should make sure just what type of murmur is present. It should be determined whether it is merely functional or actually organic

Even in the case of an organic murmur the child need not be petted pampered and spoiled This youngster must not be given the impression he is an invalid and therefore cannot enjoy the games and activities of this period of life

A certain amount of exercise is beneficial If fatiguing sports and strenuous games are avoided there is no need for alarm Play out of doors in the fresh air and sunshine is advised but a rest hour in the afternoon is needed

The child with an organic murmur can live out the average expecta on of life providing at en tion is given to a few matters of importance All centers of infection such as diseased teeth, tonsils and nasal sinuses, must be attended to promptly

Above all I recommended that the child be taken to the doctor regularly and that discussion of this condition never takes places in his presence A child may easily develop an inferiority complex or some nervous ailment as a result of repeated family debates in his presence

Christ's Blood Precious

A SERMONETTE

BY REV. C. A. RAMEY

Pastor, Salem Rural Evangelical Church

Text, 1 Peter 1:18.

THE WORD OF GOD is the only book that conveys to us the correct idea of the sanctity and meaning of blood.

The instructions of God as to its nature and use in the Levitical economy present the spectacle to the mind invested with an impressiveness awful in its character and profound in its meaning.

In God's eye blood was a sacred thing. We marvel not at this. By the instrument of blood Jehovah was to unfold His Divine character, illustrate His moral government and achieve His miracle of mercy in behalf of fallen man. In a way so wonderful and resplendent as the intelligent universe had never behold. That one thing—Blood, was to fill the world with His glory, heaven with His redeemed, and eternity with His praise.

Among the precious things of God there is none so precious, so inestimable, so influential, as the "precious blood of Christ." All salvation, all purity, all peace, all holiness, all hope, all heaven, is bound up in the atoning Blood of Christ.

There is no acceptance for the sinner, no cleansing for the guilty, no pardon for the penitent, no sanctification for the believer but in the vicarious sacrifices of the Son of God.

The blood of Christ is precious because of its worth, because it is virtually the "Blood of God," because of its preciousness to God because of its preciousness in the experience of the believer, and because it is the Blood of a holy sacrifice.

Hebrews 13:20-21, "Now the God of peace, that brought from the dead our Lord Jesus, that Great Shepherd of the sheep, through the Blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will."

RELIEF FAMILIES MUST HAUL WOOD

Clients Directed to Provide Own Transportation for Fuel

Marion relief clients in need of fuel must arrange for the hauling from the city lot at Patton and Patterson street, County Relief Director John Abel said today. The fuel, in the form of firewood collected by WPA workmen throughout the city on a tree-removal project, is being stored centrally at the lot and will be distributed to each relief family.

Until a week ago WPA workmen were permitted to use government trucks to carry the wood to the relief families, but a recent federal ruling prevents this procedure, Mr. Abel said.

All persons on relief and in need of fuel, may apply for an order at the relief office on South Prospect street. It may be necessary to have a trailer or truck to carry the wood, Mr. Abel said. Each family is given a cord at a time.

The pair suffered surface burns about the head and face, but rested well last night, and were not in serious condition this morning, the attending physician said. They were burned when hot ashes in a hopper beneath the boilers fell on them.

They were removing the ashes from the hopper and high water at the plant necessitated the use of a boat. The ashes dropped into the boat, turning it over and burning both men.

you didn't decide overnight where to buy it, and then take just any instrument they happened to have at whatever price it happened to be. You probably thought it over, talked it over with your family, and after a period of consideration made your selection.
Modern men and women are coming to regard funeral services in the same light. That is, they regard them as purchases which represent a considerable amount of the family income, and hence not to be made without careful comparison, without the buyer being well-informed
More and more people are coming to us of their own accord, in order to inform themselves on this all-important question. Come to us as you would to your insurance broker, or send for our booklet, "Your Right To Know"

SATURDAY JANUARY 16 1937

What's Going On?

Ohio cheered when the hands of state legislators reaching for mileage expenses which had been frozen were stopped The state discovered suddenly that its conscience wasn't dead but just sleeping

The Tax Limitation league was responsible for the discovery The same organization now demands that the state stop paying personal telephone telegraph and postage bills of assemblymen In 1935-36 this was an item of expense which reached approximately $48 000

Moreover the league has warned the state auditor if he honors expense accounts of members to make a junket to Washington to celebrate President Roosevelt's inauguration it will sue him to collect the money

Representatives and senators have a right to rub their eyes and wonder audibly what's going on in Columbus Maybe the think which spoilsports always have warned would happen some day is happening at last Maybe they've gone too far and are about to feel the wrath of an awakened and provish public

Six Men's Work.

The proposal to furnish the chief executive with six assistants stands out from the rest of President Roosevelt's reorganization plan

The presidency of the United States is literally a killing job Anything which would ease its occupant's heavy load could command easy approval from congress and the people

Proof that the unjust burden hasn't been overdrawn is the estimate that six assistants could help the executive to bear it They would serve in addition to the regular secretarial staff

Whatever happens to the remainder of the reorganization plan the proposal to eliminate the curse of overwork which makes the health of presidents an unduly precarious factor in national life is bound to get careful attention

Time To Take Stock.

It's time for the commercial aviation industry to take stock

A series of accidents has challenged public confidence in the reasonable safety of the transportation service the industry is selling

The evidence suggests that human and mechanical equipment is not equal to the demands made upon it in maintaining scheduled commercial flight

The public is more curious than critical Commercial aviation is almost as much its venture as it is the venture of the companies which own and operate the transports It is a new form of transportation in which the United States is claiming leadership

The claim has been nullified to a serious extent by five serious accidents in the last 23 days

11 More To Go.

Kentucky becomes the 25th state to ratify the child labor amendment

Due to a recent whooping up of favor it is almost a probability now that the 36 ratifications requisite to put the amendment into the Constitution will be obtained

So it isn't too soon to think about the results

The great majority of the country's real child laborers—little boys and girls from 10 to 13 years of age—are employed in the Carolinas Georgia Tennessee Alabama Mississippi Arkansas Louisiana and Texas where they work on farms Why?

Simply because they happened to be born in localities where the standard of living is low making it necessary or at least desirable for them to make a few cents a day

No one claims the child labor amendment will raise the standard of living in the United States It deals no with cause but with effect If and when it is added to the Constitution its quiet likely the earnest men and women who are behind it will wake up some morning to discover they still haven't tackled the problem of child labor

They will have a law and a child enforcement problem—and that's all

Reorganization Is A Drab Word

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1937 by The Marion Star

WASHINGTON Jan 16—When it is announced that the federal government is to be reorganized the word has for the average man an unreal and drab meaning. But the truth is the average man has a deep and fundamental relationship to the problem of just how the government machinery is reorganized for how efficiently and how directly and correctly it moved

So what by the federal machinery and so technical are some of the many aspects that it may not be apparent at first glance just why such a thing as commission or a board has been established in the first place and just what results may flow from the abolition of the so called bi partisan boards

President Roosevelt's committee of experts who have just proposed a far reaching plan of reorganization has touched lightly on just what is to be done to the commissions and boards simply noting that they would have their activities parcelled under one or the other of the 12 major department heads

But the commission idea in government is a definitely created entity for a specific purpose and the rights or privileges of the citizens are inseparably interwoven in the fate of the commission principle

Thus it is proposed now to separate the so called administrative functions from the quasi judicial functions This is a good thing in itself and has long been advocated by Republicans as well as Democratic presidents But what does it mean? Merely that in the case of the interstate commerce commission for example all such work as is done by the bureau of locomotive inspection would go into a regular department of the government along with steamboat inspection airplane safety inspection or any of the other tasks that fall upon the federal government and do not involve any particular question of rights except after a dispute arises but are concerned primarily with enforcement of a statute

Quasi Judicial Function

A quasi judicial function is exercised when matters of freight rates are to be adjudicated Here the commissioners really sit as a court

The administrative work properly belongs in the executive departments but the quasi judicial duties do not The more the latter can be divorced from political government and the bias that arises in the ordinary routine of a political administration the better it is for the citizen

As a matter of fact congress throughout the last 50 years would never have delegated its special powers to the executive branch of the government were it not for the feeling that a commission would represent both the majority and the minority interests in our democracy and thus would provide a check within its own walls against arbitrary use of political power

Now it is proposed to effect to make all commissions subservient to a cabinet officer who is a political officer of the government In answer to that charge the statement is made that the commissions will be as independent as ever but only their budgets will be subject to supervision by a cabinet officer Nothing is disclosed as yet as to the manner in which appointments and removals are made This is the vital part of the problem safeguards will be urged no doubt so that while the President has the power of appointment and the advice of the senate still will be necessary for confirmation the grounds of removal may be even more specifically stated than heretofore

Ever since the supreme court by unanimous decision in reference to the unjustified removal of the late William Humphreys from the federal trade commission said that congress had a right to specify the grounds of removal and only those causes could be cited in a removal case there has been a recognition of the power of the congress to stipulate freedom and independence for the governmental commissions

Control Of Cabinet

Many of these commissions like the federal communications commission the federal trade commission the interstate commerce commission and the securities and exchange commission could easily be relieved of their administrative bureaus and the energies concentrated on judicial disputes But if a cabinet officer has any control direct or indirect over these commissions if he can exercise by patronage any influence on them whatsoever if he can control the compensation or the tenure of office of the commissioners then congress will come face to face with a question of whether all the powers heretofore delegated shall be revoked or whether minutes thereafter when delegating power to the executive departments will grow more and more detailed

Unless congress makes its instructions specific executive bureaus virtually have a law making power Commissions have not been so much criticized for this before because they follow certain standards prescribed by congress and there is always a right of appeal to the federal courts

There may be many useless commissions and boards in Washington and these ought to be abolished but there are also many useful commissions which represent not a fourth branch of the government as the President's committee characterized them but true agencies of the national legislature whose members realize that statutes cannot be written to cover every contingency but must make allowances for examination in judicial fashion of the facts as they arise in disputed matters

Delegated power has become necessary in twentieth century government but the bi partisan commission is the only assurance the people have through the action of the national legislature in creating and controlling such commissions that rights and liberties will be protected against political exploitation

Another Big Job for Murphy

BY SIGRID ARNE

Associated Press Feature Service Writer

WASHINGTON Jan 16 — The baseball season was opening in Detroit in 1931 and the teams were idling at their posts waiting for the mayor's lady like toss which traditionally puts the ball in play

But the mayor that year was the red head of Frank Murphy The players stiffened a little as he left his box and walked nervously to the pitcher's mound He wound up and let fly a burning curve over home plate The stands rose and yelled

Later surprised fans learned that Murphy had been practicing in a city park polishing up the pitching arm he had had years before in high school days at Harbor Beach Mich

Gov Murphy

Dramatic Mayor

Much of his work as mayor of Detroit had the dramatic element He took office in 1930 when the depression was spilling and grumbling crowds were milling around soup boxes

Murphy knew his city from the river up He had started as a night school teacher in the Russian and Hungarian settlements He had risen to the circuit bench when he was elected mayor He didn't like the hunger in his city

When he got his relief machinery working he spent a million a month Hawks left from the business district but when they became too loud he invited business leaders in to look at his accounts He had spent $10 000 000 on relief but he argued he had saved $15 000 000 elsewhere

Faces Strike As Governor

Now as Michigan's governor he has tackled another big job—attempted mediation of the General Motors strike

Industrial welfare things to the past he told the state legislature in a paragraph inserted in his inaugural message on his way to Lansing

Force and violence are not to be tolerated We want the rights of labor protected and want business to flourish The government ought to play a helpful part in adjusting differences and settling controversies It can do this only in an atmosphere of peace and reason and mutual respect

After days of effort he succeeded in bringing G M and its striking employe together

When strike riots broke out in Flint he dispatched a regiment of national guardsmen—purely he said to preserve peace and order

Lost Money On Change

Between the many visits and the governorship he three years as U S high commissioner of the Philippine commonwealth

Murphy resigned the Philippine post and ran for the Michigan governorship after Democrats declined his political services would go far toward helping Michigan for Roosevelt

He is Irish enough to laugh at the financial pot pu he m

My friends will vote to keep me in the better paying job'

His pay check still means more to him than it does to the usual man in high public office He confided to friends recently that his savings account is just reaching the convalescent stage due to the $18 000 he had been earning in the Philippines

He has been teacher lawyer judge mayor and commissioner during his 44 years He hasn't married and he hasn't joined any clubs He always seemed interested in the job at hand to the exclusion of everything else

In the Philippines he found a house cleaning job to his liking First there was a deficit of 4 000 000 pesos He points to the 20 000 000 peso surplus now in the island treasury

He set up a public health program started slum clearance work and saw the women's suffrage amendment through the island legislature

President's Hand Seen in Strike

BY PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON Jan 16—The invincible man in the auto strike assembly line seems to be none other than bulky President Roosevelt himself If he has not been boring a quiet hole or two in the chassis of Messrs Lewis and Sloan it must have been a federal ghost acting for him His sit-down posture has belied hints that he has been active but some of the recent strike news bears a familiar presidential touch

Tips

For instance the flat glass workers indicated a few days ago that they were ready for a settlement It appeared to many an observer around here that they had toned down their demands considerably At the same time Mr John Lewis right arm which goes by the name of Philip Murray began moving as if to take hold of that glass situation and clean it up peacefully forthwith

The official inside story around labor headquarters was that Mr Lewis wanted the glass strike stopped because it was hurting Ford and Chrysler whereas he wanted to injure their competitor General Motors

It is more than a substantial guess however that Mr Lewis was informed he had better not let his strike become general in the automobile industry or else the federal government would have to step in As long as the strike affected General Motors only all the new dealers seemed to be content to let Michigan's Gov Murphy handle it Somehow they cannot get excited about the sufferings of the du Ponts That is a state matter But the broader aspects of the flat glass strike was something else again

If Mr Lewis did not get this information from an unimpeachable authority about two blocks south of his headquarters it was nevertheless very very authentic

Society

Nothing ever came out about the one hour visit of Myron Taylor to the presidential office It was described as purely a social call but skeptics are inclined to doubt that the President and the chairman of United States Steel have enough in common socially to talk for an hour At least not without discussing the one subject uppermost in their minds namely the Lewis drive to organize steel as well as motors

Whereas Mr Roosevelt knows the du Ponts only by hearsay from his son Mr Taylor is said to be their best financial friend If Mr Roosevelt wanted to send them a message he could find no one with a better knowledge of the road to Garcia

In more than one well informed quarter it is accepted as a fact that Mr Taylor's message contained advice against a prolonged dispute It is said to have been an important development leading up to the Murphy peace conference of employers and employes

Background

No weak spots have been outwardly noticeable in the morale around C I O headquarters here but on the inside of labor circles close to Lewis there has been a feeling since early this week that a settlement of the General Motors dispute was in order

Mr Lewis seemed to his friends to be sure of congressional help and sure of his leaders but not entirely sure of everything

Some impartial observers out on the scene simultaneously reached the conclusion that the well organized publicity campaign of the unemployment wanting to work was not all propaganda.

Also many a devoted labor authority began to wonder about the possibility of Messrs Lewis and Green getting so completely involved on opposite sides of the controversy as to set them both back permanently

New Cabinteers

Labor Secretary Perkins has been receiving exclusive mention in the press for that new cabinet job as head of the department of social service The brat bet for it however is Chairman John Winant of the social security board Around the White House he is just about tops in that line

The other job as head of the new department of public works may or may not go to Harry Hopkins the WPA administrator They say he will be offered the post or something equal to it but may not accept

Of one thing you may be sure Mr Roosevelt will not let Hopkins go out as Prof Tugwell did If Hopkins goes it will be because he insists

Reorganization

The President's congressional arrangers expected a critical reaction to his reorganization plan but not quite as bad as it received The realization that the best part of it will not be passed by Congress is said to have reached even the top Consequently you may shortly see a change of strategy in the handling of it

A move may be made in congress to authorize the President to carry out a part of it by executive order If this is done it will be only the undisputed part creating the two new federal departments and perhaps a few other minor things

A Closeup of Hollywood

BY O O McINTYRE

NEW YORK Jan 16—There are innumerable views of Hollywood The George S Kaufman acidulous dumb-bell closeup the gossip columns hectic surveys and those who have studied it without prejudice And found it with the usual frailties and usual charm of a community that accomplishes

Virtually all physicians reached in the checkup said the disease is much more prevalent this year than in any recent winter

Dr Welnbaum in making suggestions to Marion residents to prevent further spread of the disease and to safeguard against common colds warned that overheated residences are just as bad or worse than those underheated He urged that windows in sleeping rooms be raised at night and that plenty of bedclothing be provided

Protest Other Fellow"

Since much of the spread of colds and mild influenza is from sneezing and coughing on the part of persons who have the disease he urged that sufferers who may be well enough to continue working protect others by covering their mouths and nostrils while coughing or sneezing A disposable tissue is to be preferred to handkerchiefs he said He also said people should avoid crowds and large gatherings explaining disease spreads in crowds

If a person catches cold or is suffering from grippe or influenza he or she should be reasonably isolated so far as other members of the household are concerned or the disease is likely to spread to other members of the family

Another physician especially cautioned against getting damp and staying damp and said proper steps should be taken to avoid constipation

Bathing in Nude Frowned Upon By Sanduskians

By The Associated Press

SANDUSKY O Jan 16—City Manager Al Lauber thumbed through ancient statutes of this Lake Erie industrial center today and determined to ask the city commission to revise or repeal a score or so of such ordinances as the one which permits nude bathing in Sandusky bay after dark

That particular law the manager found was passed in 1853 and read It shall be unlawful for any person in an unclothed or naked condition to go into or bathe in the open waters of Sandusky bay within the corporate limits of the city at any time after the rising of the sun and before dark

It's not the only one that caught Lauber's eye For example there was another adopted in 1846 which assessed fines for selling gunpowder at night

If traction companies lived up to the letter of the law there'd never be any excuse for missing a street car either An ordinance that dates back to origin of the trolleys says cars shall at no time be driven at a greater rate of speed than six miles an hour and that at certain busy intersections the rate of speed shall not be faster than a walk

Hanging on the rear of a wagon in motion permitting music in places where liquor is sold and the employment of women in liquor establishments also are forbidden

Incidentally the current state legislature has before it a bill to prevent women working where beer or liquor are dispensed

A relic of the gas-lit era is the rule against climbing upon any of the lamp poles or posts of said city or the lighting or extinguishing of the lamps by unauthorized persons

Insurance statistics have shown that only three persons in each ten million in the United States have been killed by lightning in 10 years the Pacific coast and eastern states being the least hazardous

Today's Kitchen Has Color, Style, Beauty All Its Own

Columns have been written about the kitchen since that room emerged from the dark drab cubicle of old and passed the white uninteresting stage Today's kitchen combines cleanliness efficiency and beauty

The old kitchens may be transformed

Tile wainscoting is effective in kitchens and is easily cleaned Patterned wallpaper affords a variation of plain wall and adequate shelves and cupboards may be built in An interesting color scheme would be a floor covering of tan white black yellow and blue yellow tiled walls and woodwork and a paper above the tiling of blue flowers in yellow baskets on a white background Curtains could be blue and other accessories may be bought in corresponding shades.

A light above the sink saves the eyesight and the nerves of the housewife

DARKER FLOOR BEST IN AVERAGE ROOM

In a dining room where a rug is not used the floor requires more than ordinary attention It should be maintained with as few marks and scratches as possible If the floor is stained and varnished a dark tone is preferable If paint is to be the finish any very dark shade that will harmonize with the general color scheme may be chosen.

SCHOOL GIRL WRITES ON HOME OWNERSHIP

Pupil Explains Why She Wants Parents To Own House

OMAHA Nebr — A 12 year old girl of this city recently wrote a child's opinion of home ownership when she advanced the reasons why she would like her parents to own their home Her statement follows

I would like my daddy to own our home because then we would live in the same place a long time always maybe—and I wouldn't have to move away and leave my friends I would always go to the same school where my friends go and where I know the teachers and the principal

We could fix up our house and yard the way we want It build cupboards in the kitchen and screen the front porch to suit mother and I could have a tree house and swing and maybe a fish pond And we could plant flowers and bushes wherever we liked and be sure that we would get to see them grow and bloom

If my daddy bought our home sometime we would have it all paid for and then we would have more money to spend on things we want—like vacation trips or a bicycle—instead of putting so much into rent.

And I would feel so important to be able to say This is our home we own it."

CHEVROLET SALES IN DECEMBER HIGH

Chevrolet's new car sales totaled 101 256 units in December It was announced today by W E Holler general sales manager This figure represents an increase over the same month in 1935 of more than 21 000 units as the record for a year ago was 80 189 new car sales

Sales of new trucks included in the total unit sales figure were 17 516 Used car sales during the month were 148 163

Mr Holler cited these figures as added proof of the fact that American buying power is on a decided upswing and that a general increase in the potential market for new cars exists

ESCAPE IF YOU CAN

BY FREDERICK JACKSON

(Copyright, 1937, Frederick Jackson)

SYNOPSIS: Count Vronski invites several friends to a late party at Anne Phelps' studio. First to arrive are Anne, Vronski, Karsanakoff, the stunning dancer, and Bigelow, the young American from Paris. Karsanakoff has shown unusual interest in Vronski, who is trying to force Anne into marriage. A shot occurs and Bigelow finds the two women staring at Vronski's corpse. They hide the body in a cupboard. The guests arrive and the party is in full swing when Karsanakoff receives a phone call, supposedly from the dead count.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

A Plan For The Corpse

KARSANAKOFF was carrying on a laughing animated conversation.

"But it is too bad of you! You give a party and do not come! All the guests are here! Everyone but you!"

She listened. What? A friend? And just because you meet with an old friend you desert us? No, I do not forgive you. I tell her what you say, but I do not forgive you—never! Goodby."

"Well—?" she cried, hanging up the receiver and turning to face the others indignantly. "Can you imagine? Count Vronski asks our pardon—but he is not coming back. He has met with an old friend."

There was a chorus of laughter and coment, as Karsanakoff moved back to the couch. Bigelow saw that Anne had recovered her poise and he turned to glance at Karsanakoff; she smiled at him, her eyelids narrowed. He realized that she had arranged for the telephone call—probably with the aid of her maid—and the audacity of it staggered him. She had supplied them all with an alibi. All these people present would be prepared to swear that she had talked with Vronski in front of them and that he had declared he was not coming back. There remained, then, only the task of removing the body and no one would guess that he had been killed in these rooms...

"Was it Anton himself spoke to you?" Mirabelle asked Chet Harrison.

"No, it was a woman's voice."

"She was getting the number for him," decided Karsanakoff. "I was quite sure in any case that his old friend was not a man."

"Not likely," admitted Mrs. Kane.

The doorbell rang and Bigelow went to open the studio door. He glanced over the balustrade and saw Austrelitz climbing up.

"Is it Vronski?" somebody called.

"No," answered Bigelow.

'Oh I thought the telephone call might have been his idea of a joke," murmured a woman's voice. No one asked who had come in; so long as it was not Vronski, nobody seemed interested. Bigelow helped him dispose of his hat and coat in the hall.

"No telling how long this will last," murmured Bigelow, "but we can't even talk until everyone has gone."

"I understand," said Austrelitz. Bigelow led him through the chattering crowds to Anne.

"This is Anne Phelps—my great friend Dr Austrelitz," he said.

Anne looked up at him and gave him her hand. The baroness moved off, leaving the three of them together.

"What telephone did your maid use when she was pretending to be Vronski?" asked Austrelitz.

"A public telephone," answered Karsanakoff with a faint malice. "I realized naturally that there might be an attempt to trace the message and so I instructed Mariushka accordingly."

Austrelitz asked then, "What excuse did you give for his abandoning the party?'

"That he had met an old friend' said Karsanakoff, "presumably—a woman."

Austrelitz nodded. "There is only one thing to do," he finally decided. "Somehow, we must get him back to his own rooms!"

Karsanakoff and Bigelow stared at him thoughtfully.

"But won't that be terribly dangerous—?" asked Anne. 'Through the streets of New York?"

"We must make it look as though he is drunk or ill," said Austrelitz. "At this hour, we ought not to attract a great deal of attention. And once we get him there, we can perhaps arrange things to look as though some woman had been there with him. If he is found there, the police will assume that he was shot there. At least, we must hope so."

"It sounds sensible," agreed Bigelow eagerly.

Austrelitz smiled "Thank you Where did he live?"

"He had just moved into a furnished apartment on East 58th street," answered Anne.

"What sort of an apartment house, do you know?"

"Yes. I helped him choose it. It's an old brownstone front, remodeled."

"There are no hall attendants, then—switch-board operators—elevator boys?"

"No, no one of that sort at all," agreed Anne. "You let yourself in with a latch-key and just walk up, two flights of stairs."

"At least we'll not have to devise means of getting anyone out of the way. Has he a servant there?"

"No. There isn't a servant's room. He has a valet, but he sleeps out."

Austrelitz breathed a sigh of relief. "Then it should be simple Bigelow and I can manage it I have my car at the door"

Bigelow and Austrelitz start the hazardous task of moving the body Monday.

FOREIGN PROGRAMS ON INAUGURATION

As part of its inauguration day broadcasting NBC will have pickups from London, Paris and Honolulu. These will consist of comments by Americans away from home on the President's second inaugural address.

The first at 1.15 p. m. will come from London, followed by a switch to Paris. Each city will have five minutes. Honolulu is to be heard at 2:25.

Tonight's programs: Joe Cook's chateau at 9:30 over WEAF-NBC; T. G. Plant on "Coast Strike Situation," at 10 over WJZ-NBC.

Tomorrow's highlights: Headlines and History at 1:45 and Prof. Quiz's questions at 7 p. m. on WABC-CBS; We, the People at 3 and Edwin C. Hill at 9:45 over WJZ-NBC.

Monday will bring a special pre-Inauguration program over WEAF-NBC at 6:20 and over WJZ-NBC at 4:30 with a drama, Inaugurations from 1789 to 1937.

'Only One Thing To Do'

"In Paris" mused Karsanakoff dreamily, "there is the Seine." She exhaled, watching the cigarette smoke spiral slowly upward.

"We have rivers here, too," said Austrelitz frowning but there would be too great a risk of being seen. And besides that, when the body was afterward found, there would be an inquiry—and it would assuredly come to light that he was actually last seen living the restaurant to come up here with you three."

"I suppose it wouldn't be possible to make him disappear so that no trace of him would ever be found?" asked Bigelow looking at the doctor.

Austrelitz shook his head. "I know of no way, no safe way. And even if I did, I should hesitate to recommend it. It would mean months—perhaps years—of suspense and uncertainty, while people wondered and speculated and investigations were set afoot."

Bigelow nodded. Karsanakoff smoked. Anne gazed into space and said nothing, her eyes agonized, her lips taut.

"What telephone did your maid use when she was pretending to be Vronski?" asked Austrelitz.

"A public telephone," answered Karsanakoff with a faint malice. "I realized naturally that there might be an attempt to trace the message and so I instructed Mariushka accordingly."

Austrelitz asked then, "What excuse did you give for his abandoning the party?'

HARDIN CO. BOARD DEMANDS AID FUNDS

Special to The Star

KENTON, Jan 16—The board of Hardin county commissioners today planned formal protest to the Ohio relief commission against refusing this county any part in the distribution of approximately $440,000 of unexpended relief moneys.

"Roy L. Wildermuth, chairman of the state relief commission, wrote us that we would be unable to participate in the distribution because we had a relief fund balance, as of Jan 1 1937, sufficient to care for our January needs," Chairman Jesse W. Dubin asserted. "The true fact is that we were overdrawn for our relief needs at that time."

TOO BAD, GIRLS, HE'S TAKEN

Many a female heart flutters as Robert Taylor flashes on the screen but all to no avail because Hollywood reports say that his time is taken by Barbara Stanwyck. Here's a picture of the screen luminaries dancing at a Hollywood club, which seems to confirm the romance. (Associated Press Photo)

Married Comrades

BY ADELE GARRISON

Madge Phones Lillian at Farmhouse After Katherine Falls Asleep.

WHEN KATHERINE'S soft, regular breathing told me that she had finally succumbed to the sedative Miss Haskell had given her, I raised myself on one elbow to test my conviction.

"Katherine!" I said softly. "Katrina!"

There was not even the flicker of an eyelid to show that she had heard me, and, knowing that once she was asleep under a sedative as powerful as the one Miss Haskell had given her it would take noise equal to that of a rowdy night club to awaken her, I slipped out of bed, put on Katherine's dressing gown and slippers, and padded to the telephone.

"What can I do for you?" a clipped, pleasant voice intoned.

"I wish a long distance number. Can it be charged to my account? I am Mrs. Graham, visiting Dr. Meredith, Miss Haskell's patient."

"Will you please hold the line for a minute?" the voice asked, and it was less than half a minute when it spoke again.

"Of course, Mrs. Graham. What number do you wish?" she asked, and I gave her the farmhouse number.

"It's a person-to-person call, I said. "I wish to speak only to Mrs. Underwood."

"I'll call you," she said, briskly efficient.

"Thank you, but I'd rather hold the line," I told her. "My friend, Mrs. Bickell, is asleep in this room, and though my voice will not waken her the sound of a telephone bell might."

"Very well. I'll hurry the call as fast as I can," she said, and she kept her word. It was less than a minute before I heard Lillian's voice.

"This is Mrs. Underwood," she said, and I knew from the formality of her tone that she was on her guard against possible "listening in."

"Hello! Lil-yan," I answered, stressing the "y," the modification of her name which I never use except when we have to be on guard even for telephone conversations or those over dangerous connections. I knew my use of it would tell her that she must read between the lines and answer accordingly.

"Hello, Marjie," she said, returning my cue with a similar one of her own.

"How is father?" I inquired with elaborate consideration of daughterly anxiety, and I wished fervently that I could have a correct answer to my question, instead of the reply which Lillian would give me regarding Allen Drake's clever imitation of my father.

"He's ever so much better," she said. "Nurse Whitlock says he has shown such remarkable improvement that she thinks she can leave the case in another day or two."

"Oh, she mustn't do that!" I exclaimed, simulating fussy alarm. "Don't let her take until I get home."

"All right, I won't," she returned. "How are things there?"

He's still alive, and the physician says he has a fighting chance for life, because of Kay's arrival. He roused from his delirium and recognized Kay and he is now sleeping peacefully."

"Thank heaven!" Lillian ejaculated, and I knew that the fervent exclamation came from the deepest recesses of her heart. Then she added a comment that was an echo of my own thoughts.

"That complicates things a bit, doesn't it?" she asked.

NEWS OF STAGE AND SCREEN—MARION THEATER PROGRAMS

MARION BOOKS DOUBLE BILLS

"Fury" Is First Feature Attraction for Sunday and Monday.

[illegible] a starting Sunday continuing through the week at the Marion theater.

Open [illegible] Sunday and Monday, "Fury," one of the outstanding pictures of last year, starring Sidney Tracy and Sylvia Sydney. On the same bill is a General Pictures comedy. Tuesday and Wednesday will bring "The Case Against Mrs. Ames," with a cast of Madeleine Carroll, George Brent, Arthur Treacher, Alan Baxter, Beulah Bondi and Alan Bowbray, and "Crooked Trails," one of Johnny Mack Brown's series of western action dramas.

Closing the week Thursday through Saturday will be "Big Show" and "Three Married Men."

In "Fury" Tracy gives one of the best performances in a notable career in the motion picture world. Wrongly accused of a murder and the object of a lynching party he escapes only to set out to bring the accusers face to face with the same tragic consequences which had confronted him. It was one of the most dramatic and highly satisfying pictures of the last season.

In "The Case Against Mrs. Ames" Miss Carroll, favorite English actress, makes her American film debut. The picture deals with a murder mystery in which Miss Carroll is placed in the shadow of the noose through circumstantial evidence. Her charm, not her innocence, brings about her acquittal.

'HOLLYWOOD TROUPE' ON STAGE AT PALACE

Johnny Dunn Entertainers Added Attraction on Sunday's Bill.

Holding the spotlight at the Palace theater Sunday will be Johnnie Dunn and his "Hollywood Holiday" troupe as an added stage feature. The troupe will share the Sunday program with the Wheeler and Woolsey comedy "Mummy's Boys."

Johnnie Dunn, of screen and musical comedy, will keep the show moving with comedy patter and as master of ceremonies. Surrounding him will be a background of music and dancing.

Spud Seal, a frozen faced comedian of the silent variety, carries his comedy to the audience with facial expressions and at the conclusion of his performancetoots a coat rote on the trumpet.

Mildred Perlee, billed as America's "Sweetheart of the Dance," does a control waltz dance that has stopped many a show. She also does an acrobatic dance. In Hollywood she has doubled for many stars of the screen.

Billy Thornton and his company present a novel magical number, featuring clocks, both large and small, that appear from hats, the air or most any place about the stage.

Don Stone and Sugar Kane show a few new tricks in rhythm.

Frank Hamilton has played in the major vaudeville circuits as a comedy singer.

Mildred and Sybil Lee offer a number of charming dance routines.

The entire troupe is backed up by the Hollywood Ambassador orchestra.

The Stars Say—

For Sunday, Jan. 17

SUNDAY'S HOROSCOPE is a fairly auspicious one, with active conditions in connection with writings, publishings or promotional programs. Employment is under good influence for recognition or preferment from superiors.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for an active, lively and progressive year, with new business and contracts under favorable aspect. Employment is also under rather fortunate auspices for advancement or favors. But be wise in indulging in reckless, tempestuous or impetuous conduct of any kind.

A child born on this day may be lively, versatile and energetic, with a tendency for salesmanship, promotion or advertising, and he may want to be constantly doing something and making changes. Properly handled, without impetuousity, this will prove an asset.

For Monday, Jan. 18

MONDAYS ASTROLOGICAL FORECAST is a dubious one, especially in the handling of funds. Speculation, gambling and personal extravagances or indulgences may prove hazardous. Avoid alert to schemes, treachery and shun anything that might cause scandal.

Those who birthday it is are in the verge of a year in which much depends upon individual exercising good judgment and personal self control. Avoid speculation, gambling and extravagance.

A child born on this day may be clever, shrewd and have flashes of an unusual or original mind. But it may have tendencies to impulsive and intolerant moods, with poor judgment in handling its funds.

"Mummy's Boys" Starts Week's Bill At Palace

Wheeler and Woolsey Comedy Here for Day; "After the Thin Man" and "Plainsman" Booked.

The riotous comedy of Wheeler and Woolsey in "Mummy's Boys" at the Palace theater Sunday only will be followed with a return engagement Monday and Tuesday of the subtle comedy of William Powell and Myrna Loy in "After the Thin Man."

The Palace program for the remainder of the week includes "Without Orders" on Wednesday starring Sally Eilers and Robert Armstrong. "Jungle Princess" Thursday and Friday featuring Dorothy LaMour and Ray Milland and winding up Saturday with "The Plainsman," Gary Cooper's new picture.

Back to Antiquity

Wheeler and Woolsey go to ancient Egypt to mix mummies, harems and sheiks in their latest picture. Featured with them is their new leading lady, blond Barbara Pepper.

As a pair of amateur archaeologists they set out to evacuate the tomb of a long buried king and progress splendidly until they stray from the tombs of the dead to the harems of the living. Among others in the large cast are Moroni Olsen, Frank M. Thomas, Willie Best.

"After the Thin Man," brought back after a recent showing at the Palace, casts Powell and Miss Loy in a continuation of the fun they started in "The Thin Man."

Story of Wild West

Gary Cooper's "The Plainsman," is a reenactment of the starring days of the old west. Cooper plays the part of "Wild Bill Hickok," famed peace officer of pioneer days and cast opposite him is Jean Arthur as "Calamity Jane," of stage coach driving fame.

Now legendary figures of the early west pass in review in the picture. Helen Burgess plays the roel of the wife of Buffalo Bill, a part second only to that of Miss Arthur's. The role of Buffalo Bill is played by James Ellison and John Miljan enacts the part of General Custer.

Two thousand Cheyenne Indians and 250 calvarymen reenact Custer's last stand at Little Big Horn.

Miss Lamour makes her screen debut in "The Jungle Princess," a story of love in the heart of the Malay jungle. Besides Miss Lamour and Milland the cast includes Lynne Overman, Akim Tamiroff, Mollie Lamont, Hugh Buckler and 300 native Malayans.

ACTION FILMS ON OHIO BILL

"Charge of the Light Brigade" in List of Film Thrillers for Week.

The immortal story of "The Charge of The Light Brigade" by Warner Bros., now adapted to a motion picture story, comes to the Ohio theater starting Saturday through Tuesday. Completing the week's bill on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday will be a double bill, "Isle of Fury," a thrill picture of the seas with Humphrey Bogart, Donald Woods and Margaret Lindsey in the chief roles, and "Guns of the Pecos," a Dick Foran western with Anne Nagel, Gordon Hart, Joseph Crehan and Eddie Acuff in the principal roles.

Distinguished Cast

In "The Charge of the Light Brigade" Errol Flynn plays the part of Major Geoffrey Vickers, and other leads are taken by Olivia de Havilland as "Elsa Campbell," Patric Knowles as "Captain Perry Vickers," Henry Stephenson as "Sir Charles Macefield," and Nigel Bruce as "Sir Benjamin Warrenton."

The picture relates a story as thrilling as the charge of the brigade itself and traces the fortunes of English soldiers in India. Entwined through the picture is a love story in which Knowles and Flynn, playing the roles of brothers, compete for the hand of Miss de Havilland.

The charge of the Light Brigade is primarily an action picture dealing with the lives and fortunes of English lancers who defend their country's flag in the far corners of the mighty empire.

The thrill climax comes as the lancers charge into "The Valley of Death," a reenactment of the battle of the Crimean war made famous in poem and history.

An Undersea Thriller

"The Isle of Fury" is the story of men, and women, who seek fortune on the bottom of the sea—divers in search of the enchanting pearl. Battles with devil fish that fight the invasion of the divers into their realm add plenty of thrills to the picture. It is a Warner Bros. production.

"Guns of the Pecos," a First National release, relates the demise of a band of cutthroats the Texas rangers were organized to exterminate.

COUPLE TO MARRY.

BUCYRUS, Jan. 16—The approaching nuptials of Miss Enid Chatlain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Chatlain, and Floyd O'Brien, of Mansfield, son of Mrs. C. W. O'Brien of Bucyrus, was announced at a party given by Miss Dorothy Schieber and Mrs. Edwin Norton at the Schieber home, Thursday night. They will wed Jan. 31.

"LIGHT BRIGADE" AT OHIO FOUR DAYS

TOP PICTURE ON AT STATE

"Dodsworth" Among Last Year's Best Films Back for Return Showing.

Two top flight pictures of last season are set for return showings at the State theater next week.

Opening the program Sunday, Monday and Tuesday is "Dodsworth" with Walter Huston, Ruth Chatterton, Paul Lukas and Mary Astor in the principal roles.

Following on Wednesday for one day only is "The Scarlet Pimpernel" with Leslie Howard and Merle Oberon. On the same bill will be a Bob Steele western "Band of Outlaws."

Closing the week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be a Rex Bell picture, "West of Nevada" and a special picture showing the Civil war in Spain.

"Dodsworth" is made from the Sinclair Lewis novel by the same name. Huston as Dodsworth, an easy going American business man, retires (a travel and enjoy himself but instead finds out his frivolous and selfish wife, played by Miss Chatterton. Divorced by his wife, who seeks one last fling before settling down to middle age, Huston is left alone until he meets Miss Astor playing the role of Mrs. Cortright. Lukas plays the role of an impoverished Austrian aristocrat who separates the Dodsworths.

"The Scarlet Pimpernal" tells the story of the French revolution. Heads of aristocrats roll from the execution block as the knitting women count the tail. Leslie Howard as a sympathetic Englishman gives one of his best performances through his efforts to secrete the condemned to safety in England.

WPA AIRPORT WORK DELAYED TO SPRING

Work on leveling of the runway at the municipal airport has been temporarily halted until next spring, Erwin J. Nasper, WPA engineer for Marion county, said today. The WPA workmen are being transferred from the project to county road work. Recent rains have made the ground at the airport too soft for working, Mr. Nasper said.

Just Things

Diet

AFTER the holiday indulgence of plum puddings, fruit cakes, candy, we watch the scales go up, and then start wondering why we ever let ourselves in for such heartbreak. We haven't heard a recipe that will take off the poundage, but we did hear of one that puts on a new complexion glow and gives a brilliant glint to the eye. It is a potassium broth composed of a bunch of parsley, a large bunch of spinach, one of carrots and a head of celery. It's up to you if you want to add onions, bayleaves or other herbal seasonings, but absolutely no salt nor pepper. Mash all these well after boiling and simmering 20 minutes. A vegetable "squeezer" is a help for their first preparation. Those are the vegetables which have a rich content of potassium. The water is strained off and enough should be made to serve a day or two. The vegetable may have water poured over them again and reboiled but the extract will not be as rich as the first installation, but still good. One may, of course save the macerated carrots, etc., for a pure vegetable soup, without meat. An eight-day diet of this, carried with unsweetening fruit juices and baked apples with honey, not sugar sweetening, is said to make one over completely. Especially if one begins it with a dose of salts and takes a nightly tepid bath with a pound of salts added. It is better to have a warm bathroom and jig one's self dry than to use towels, so that the salts will cling to the skin. We are told that after the eight days of this rigid diet a pound was lost, so it really is not weakening. No, we haven't tried it.

When Is a Duck?

WHEN is a duck not a duck? Sounds like Joe Penner but it isn't. It's just what two folks promised a real, honest to goodness duck dinner are still wondering, the while they are trying to convince the folks to whom they broadcast their good fortune for days on end beforehand, that the duck dinner was not a trumped up story. There's something peculiar about duck dinner enthusiasts, they usually don't care to dine on them so frequently but when they get the urge, well, it's just too bad. It's really 10 times worse than wanting a new hat or a trip abroad. We sniffed something a bit off key when our hostess brought up the subject are we scarcely had our hat off, and we're saying right here that so far as she goes, "she done her best." Dickering for said duck from a farmer who had two and after de-feathering one for his own dinner was more than glad to part with the survivor, the sad news came that on the day of the execution a bold bad dog thinking to dine on fowl, had succeeded in getting himself a leg. Further scouting revealed a large flock living in peace on a farm hard by, and negotiations were begun at once for one of their number. The owner of the flock fared forth in full faith that she knew her ducks, and all that would be necessary would be to cajole them a bit and she would be winner. They were doing their daily dozen on a miniature lake and were in no mood for cajoling. When said owner reached one side of the pond the fowls, to a duck, turned and beat it to the other side of the pond. After marathoning from one side of the lake to the other, fatigue and darkness drove the owner into the house leaving the ducks, 100 per cent in number and the hostess sans her piece de resistance. To make a long story short the duck dinner turned out to be an elegant pork roast with duck trimmings, and left the guests hoping for a big freeze that will either drive the duck tribe to dry land or freeze them to one spot so their owner can catch at least one of them.

Harding Loses to Ashland; St. Mary Beaten at Lima

HILLTOPPERS WIN BY 40 TO 18 SCORE AT SHOVEL COURT

Visitors Lone Unbeaten Team in N.C.O. League; Marion To Meet Galion.

By CHARLES HOSTETLER

Marion's Harding High Presidents dropped before Ashland's Hilltoppers, the team with which they shared last year's North Central Ohio conference pennant, 40 to 18, last night at the Shovel gymnasium, but not before they loosed a scare into the camp of the visiting cagers.

By virtue of the victory, its fourth consecutive league win, the Lonero-coached quintet remain as the lone undefeated N. C. O. team. Last night was the first time in four years that the Ashland team was able to down a Harding quintet on its home lot, and the feat required a combine of veterans stacked against a Marion team which boasted only one returning letterman.

Coach Dewey N. Bohyer's Harding team turned in a fine performance against the strong invading aggregation and held Ashland on even terms through the first three periods. Frank Roberts was Marion's individual star of the game, gaining high scoring honors by dumping in five shots from action. Roberts proved particularly elusive to the veteran guards who attempted to hold him in tow. Every member of Harding's starting lineup was able to break into the scoring column although Sharrock, Wintermute and Decker, were unable to register on any of their hurried field goal attempts.

Sprague Ashland Star

Lanby Bob Sprague filled the starring role for the Lonero team. He was out in front in individual scoring with six field goals and four free throws to his credit.

A large group of Ashland fans followed the team on its visit to the Shovel gymnasium and the attendance was estimated at well over the 300 mark. Among the interested spectators was Coach Johnny Burnison of the Galion Bluestreaks, who was apparently scouting the Marion team in the hope of being better prepared for Harding's invasion of his team's home court next week.

Six of the league teams will be busy next Tuesday night when Marion travels to Galion, Mt. Vernon invades Bucyrus and Ashland entertains Shelby. With the re-admission of Bucyrus to the N. C. O. loop it was necessary to add two conference games to the schedules of each other entry. League officials deemed it necessary to play the mid-week games in complete the N. C. O. schedule before the opening of district tournaments in March.

Seobey Scores First

Seobey, Ashland center, opened the scoring with a side shot and Castor followed with a free throw. Marion's first score came on Wintermute's charity toss, but Castor's basket made Ashland's lead 5 to 1. Sharrock tallied on a foul, and Sprague whipped two field goals

Mat Ace Who'll Wrestle in Marion Shown with Diz Dean

Dizzy Dean of the baseball world, and Paul Orth, who's often termed the Dizzy Dean of wrestling, are shown above when they met at an athletic banquet in the southwest not so long ago. Orth shown at the left, who appears to be putting a hold on the famous baseball star, will probably be more in earnest when he comes here Monday night to meet the big Sergeant of the Marines, Bob Keniston of Silver City, Ore. They will be matched in one of the 60-minute bouts, while Toots Estes of Elk City, Okla., and Martino Angelo will face each other in the second main scrap. The card at the Shovel gymnasium will open with a 20-minute preliminary to start at 8:30 o'clock.

BOWLERS TO STUDY TOURNAMENT PLANS

City Contest Arrangements To Be Discussed at Meeting Here Sunday.

Plans for a city bowling tournament will be discussed at a meeting of the Marion City Bowling association at the Marion Recreation Center, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The association, composed of officials of each of the organized men's leagues, will be in charge of the tourney which will probably be held in April.

Tentative plans call for team, doubles and single competition in the tournament. The president, vice president and secretary of each of the seven leagues compose the city association. Leagues included in the set-up are Commercial, Craftsman, Industrial, All Star, City, Automotive and Recreation.

Following the meeting a sweepstakes tournament with cash prizes will be run-off. The sweepstakes affair for individual competition only will begin at 5 o'clock, with awards for the two high scorers and the highest single game score.

PAROCHIAL CAGERS BOW, 27 TO 21, IN ST. ROSE HIGH GAME

Feidner and Schuler Lead in Scoring for Marion; Quinn Paces Rivals.

Marion St. Mary Parochial High cagers were turned back, 27 to 21, in their invasion of the Lima St. Rose court last night. The St. Mary team, playing a double-header this week, is scheduled to visit the Pleasant township High school court tonight. Pleasant was victorious in its county league game last night, winning over Martel, 42 to 26.

Scoring honors of the Kelly-coached Irish quintet were divided between Feidner, forward, and Schuler, center, who each accounted for eight of the team's points. Both players dropped four baskets through the hoop, while Myers cashed in on one action shot and a free throw, and Wixtead tossed a single field goal to account for the remaining St. Mary scores.

Quinn, lanky center of the St. Rose team, offered the Marion team plenty of difficulty. Breaking loose frequently he tagged four field goals to lead the victorious team in scoring. The box score of the game follows.

VINES LICKS COLD, OVERCOMES PERRY

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 16—Ellsworth Vines, National Professional tennis champion, shuffled along to Detroit today with a double victory safely tucked away—he licked a cold, then trounced Fred Perry, former amateur king.

Three times before he bowed to Perry in matches at New York, Cleveland and Chicago. Then he went to a Chicago hospital, stayed in bed for six days and licked the cold.

He went into last night's match at Duquesne Garden, back in top form and except for the second set, which went to Perry, displayed marked superiority piling up points seemingly with little effort.

Waldo Girls and Pleasant Boys Hold Top Spots in County Basketball Loop

Contest Last Night Costs Kirkpatrick Girls First Defeat of Season; Morral-Green Camp Game Postponed.

Waldo High school girls' basketball team, champions of the county league for the past two years, stepped into undisputed first place last night when they turned back the previously unbeaten Kirkpatrick team, 25 to 16, on the Waldo court. The down-county team's domination of the girls' league remained and the squad seems headed for its third consecutive pennant.

In the boys' division of the county competition, Pleasant Township High cagers remained in the league top spot by scoring a 42 to 26 victory at Martel. Although the team is in first place with but one defeat in seven games, two other squads follow close behind, having also won all except one of their contests. Agosta is second with one defeat in six games and Claridon is third with four out of five games played.

The Morral-Green Camp games, scheduled on the latter's court last night, were postponed because of the high water in western Marion county. Classes were dismissed at the Green Camp school yesterday when busses were unable to traverse their usual routes to pick up pupils. The games are to be played next Wednesday night on the Green Camp court.

The Waldo-Kirkpatrick girls' game took the center of the county stage last night, and it was estimated that more than 400 people witnessed the affair. Gearhiser, Waldo forward, was the leading scorer, getting six goals and two free throws for a total of 14 points. Just two short of the entire opposing club, Kirkpatrick won the boys' contest, 29 to 22. The Agosta boys team, undefeated up until a week ago, scored a 28 to 19 win over Prospect, while the girls' team of Prospect High downed the visitors 21 to 5.

Pleasant High advanced its claim on a berth in the first division by trouncing Martel, 42 to 26, and the girls' team came through with a 29 to 10 victory, to make it a double win on the Martel court. Caledonia turned in a similar double-victory last night on its home court as the boys defeated Caledonia, 26 to 16, and the Claridon girls won 19 to 13. Box scores of the games follow.

OHIO NORTHERN AND CASE UNDEFEATED

By The Associated Press

Case's scrapping Scientists and Ohio Northern's clawing Polar Bears continued their Ohio conference winning ways last night and remained Ohio's only undefeated college quintets.

Each team won its fifth victory of the season, Case disposing of the visiting Mount Union quintet, 33 to 23, and Northern swamping Ashland on the victors' floor, 60 to 21.

Tonight Ohio State tries for its second straight Big Ten victory, facing Minnesota at Columbus.

Toledo's Rockets spanked Cincinnati's Bearcats in the Queen City, 47 to 34, and Western Reserve shaded Baldwin Wallace, at Cleveland, 39 to 38, in independent games last night. Findlay nosed out Kent State, 26 to 25, at Findlay.

Marshall invades Ohio Wesleyan tonight, and if the Huntington, W. Va., team comes out ahead it will tie Ohio university for the Buckeye conference lead at three victories in as many starts. Miami is at Dayton in the Ohio Buckeye tangle.

The easy pattern is greatly simplified by its accompanying step-by-step sewing instructions, and even if you've never made a frock before, you'll find this one easy to stitch. Ideal in cotton.

Pattern 4299 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 4¼ yards 36 inch fabric.

HORSE and COW SALE
WEDNESDAY, JAN. 20
10:30 A. M.
Bucyrus Livestock Commission Co.
On Plymouth Road State Route 98
BUCYRUS, OHIO

On above date we will start our big regular weekly Horse and Cow Auction again at 10:30 a. m. Will have at least 250 or more horses again for this sale. I believe we had more shape, color and quality and good ages for our sale this week than you will find most any place.

Some of our consignors for next Wednesday's Sale. Mr. Magness from South Dakota, 1 good load; Mr. Wilson from Illinois, 40 head; Joe Simmerman from Allerton, Iowa, says he will have 10 good matched teams and some extra good mares in his load; Mr. Blitzstine from Illinois says he has an extra good load, several outstanding mares; Mr. Marker and Mr. Grant from Van Wert, Ohio, will each have a good consignment again.

Will also have a lot of good home horses. All horses bought in the country. No market horses.

The country is right up against a shortage of work horses, and I want to urge you to supply your needs as it looks to me like the man who waits will have to pay much higher prices. Hope you can arrange to be with us on above date. Feel sure you will find a good selection and be pleased with the treatment you receive.

Have the assurance of a lot of good dairy cows for this sale. Sale on cows starts at 10:30 followed immediately by the sale of horses.

We are running a market here where both buyer and seller are given a square deal. Horse and Cow Sale each Wednesday. Cattle, Sheep and Hog Sale each Saturday. Your presence will be appreciated.
